

You do not need to uninstall your existing MATLAB installation before installing a new version. Each release is independent of previous releases, and you can run ... MATLAB on top of ... MATLAB. If the installation results in a new MATLAB installation, it will run on top of the old installation. You cannot run older versions of MATLAB on top of newer versions. At any time, you can uninstall any version of MATLAB, and after that you can start the new version. You can run MATLAB over an existing MATLAB installation if it is the latest version of MATLAB that supports your operating system.
